EMMANUEL ANGLICAN CHURCH

September 10, 2023
The Fourteenth Sunday After Trinity
Morning Prayer Service

WELCOME

Worship Community Mission

Emmanuel Anglican Church exists to see, describe, and reflect the beauty of Jesus Christ for the flourishing of New York City. We pursue this together by: trusting and obeying the Scriptures; relying on the Holy Spirit in prayer, worship, and all of life; pursuing character and community formed by the gospel; sharing the gospel with New York City and beyond; serving our neighborhoods, city, and the world; and planting new churches. The church's congregation reflects the gorgeous diversity of the broader NYC population, with folks of many different ages, backgrounds, and countries of origin in our community.

About the Anglican Tradition

Anglican churches have our heritage in the reformation of the church that began in the Church of England and now are spread throughout the world. We are affiliated with the wider global Anglican Communion through oversight from Bishop Julian Dobbs as part of the Anglican Diocese of the Living Word, a diocese of the Anglican Church of North America.

Features of this heritage include being biblical—it holds to the unique authority of the Bible as God's Word written; creedal—it upholds the teachings of historic Christian creeds; confessional—it subscribes to the Thirty-Nine Articles of the Anglican Church; liturgical—it uses forms of service that are consistent with the teaching and practice of the Book of Common Prayer; and evangelical—it is committed to communicating God's good news to the world.

The message we proclaim is God's grace in Jesus Christ. It is about people being individually renewed by God, forming new communities (churches), and lovingly serving those in need. It is not first and foremost about morality, but Christ-centered transformation—a whole new way of life, with a new focus of worship.

Reflection

“Evolution” by
John Banister Tabb

Out of the dusk a shadow,
 Then, a spark;
Out of the cloud a silence,
 Then, a lark;
Out of the heart a rapture,
 Then, a pain;
Out of the dead, cold ashes,
 Life again.

Confession & Declaration of Forgiveness

(Remain standing)

Let us humbly confess our sins to Almighty God.

Almighty and most merciful Father, we have erred and strayed from your ways like lost sheep. We have followed too much the devices and desires of our own hearts. We have offended against your holy laws. We have left undone those things which we ought to have done, and we have done those things which we ought not to have done; and apart from your grace, there is no health in us. O Lord, have mercy upon us. Spare all those who confess their faults. Restore all those who are penitent, according to your promises declared to all people in Christ Jesus our Lord. And grant, O most merciful Father, for his sake, that we may now live a godly, righteous, and sober life, to the glory of your holy Name. Amen.

Almighty God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, desires not the death of sinners, but that they may turn from their wickedness and live. He has empowered and commanded his ministers to pronounce to his people, being penitent, the absolution and remission of their sins. He pardons and absolves all who truly repent and genuinely believe his holy Gospel. For this reason, we beseech him to grant us true repentance and his Holy Spirit, that our present deeds may please him, the rest of our lives may be pure and holy, and that at the last we may come to his eternal joy; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

O Lord, open our lips
And our mouth shall declare your praise!

O God, make speed to save us,
O Lord, make haste to help us.

Glory to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit,
As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end,
Amen.

Praise the LORD!
The Lord's name be praised!

Readings

Genesis 1:1-19

(Please be seated)

^{1:1} In the beginning, God created the heavens and the earth. ² The earth was without form and void, and darkness was over the face of the deep. And the Spirit of God was hovering over the face of the waters.

³ And God said, "Let there be light," and there was light. ⁴ And God saw that the light was good. And God separated the light from the darkness. ⁵ God called the light Day, and the darkness he called Night. And there was evening and there was morning, the first day.

⁶ And God said, "Let there be an expanse in the midst of the waters, and let it separate the waters from the waters." ⁷ And God made the expanse and separated the waters that were under the expanse from the waters that were above the expanse. And it was so. ⁸ And God called the expanse Heaven. And there was evening and there was morning, the second day.

⁹ And God said, "Let the waters under the heavens be gathered together into one place, and let the dry land appear." And it was so. ¹⁰ God called the dry land Earth, and the waters that were gathered together he called Seas. And God saw that it was good.

ORDER OF SERVICE

¹¹ And God said, “Let the earth sprout vegetation, plants yielding seed, and fruit trees bearing fruit in which is their seed, each according to its kind, on the earth.” And it was so. ¹² The earth brought forth vegetation, plants yielding seed according to their own kinds, and trees bearing fruit in which is their seed, each according to its kind. And God saw that it was good. ¹³ And there was evening and there was morning, the third day.

¹⁴ And God said, “Let there be lights in the expanse of the heavens to separate the day from the night. And let them be for signs and for seasons, and for days and years, ¹⁵ and let them be lights in the expanse of the heavens to give light upon the earth.” And it was so. ¹⁶ And God made the two great lights—the greater light to rule the day and the lesser light to rule the night—and the stars. ¹⁷ And God set them in the expanse of the heavens to give light on the earth, ¹⁸ to rule over the day and over the night, and to separate the light from the darkness. And God saw that it was good. ¹⁹ And there was evening and there was morning, the fourth day.

The Word of the Lord

Thanks be to God.

Genesis 1:20-2:3

²⁰ And God said, “Let the waters swarm with swarms of living creatures, and let birds fly above the earth across the expanse of the heavens.” ²¹ So God created the great sea creatures and every living creature that moves, with which the waters swarm, according to their kinds, and every winged bird according to its kind. And God saw that it was good. ²² And God blessed them, saying, “Be fruitful and multiply and fill the waters in the seas, and let birds multiply on the earth.” ²³ And there was evening and there was morning, the fifth day.

²⁴ And God said, “Let the earth bring forth living creatures according to their kinds—livestock and creeping things and beasts of the earth according to their kinds.” And it was so. ²⁵ And God made the beasts of the earth according to their kinds and the livestock according to their kinds, and everything that creeps on the ground according to its kind. And God saw that it was good.

²⁶ Then God said, “Let us make man[h] in our image, after our likeness. And let them have dominion over the fish of the sea and over the birds of the heavens and over the livestock and over all the earth and over every creeping thing that creeps on the earth.”

²⁷ So God created man in his own image,
in the image of God he created him;
male and female he created them.

²⁸ And God blessed them. And God said to them, “Be fruitful and multiply and fill the earth and subdue it, and have dominion over the fish of the sea and over the birds of the heavens and over every living thing that moves on the earth.”

²⁹ And God said, “Behold, I have given you every plant yielding seed that is on the face of all the earth, and every tree with seed in its fruit. You shall have them for food. ³⁰ And to every beast of the earth and to every bird of the heavens and to everything that creeps on the earth, everything that has the breath of life, I have given every green plant for food.” And it was so. ³¹ And God saw everything that he had made, and behold, it was very good. And there was evening and there was morning, the sixth day.

^{2:1} Thus the heavens and the earth were finished, and all the host of them. ² And on the seventh day God finished his work that he had done, and he rested on the seventh day from all his work that he had done. ³ So God blessed the seventh day and made it holy, because on it God rested from all his work that he had done in creation.

The Word of the Lord
Thanks be to God.

 he is seated at the right hand of the Father,
 and he will come to judge the living and the dead.

O God, the Creator of all, whose Son commanded us to love our enemies: Lead them and us from prejudice to truth; deliver them and us from hatred, cruelty, and revenge; and in your good time enable us all to stand reconciled before you in Jesus Christ; Lord, in your mercy,

Hear our prayer.

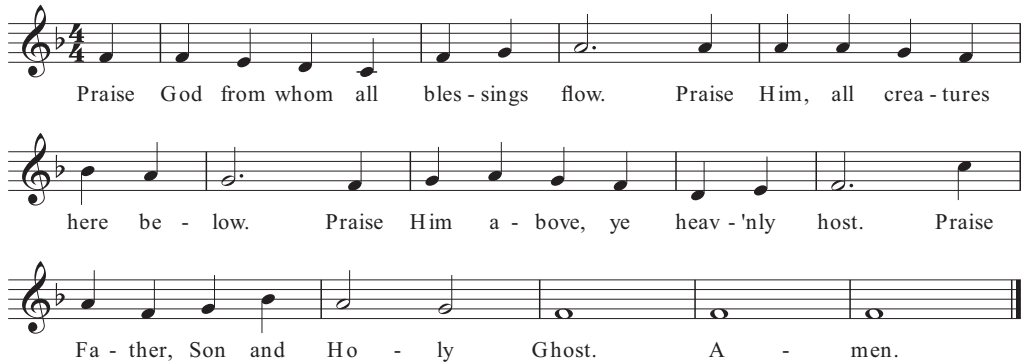

Almighty God our Savior, you desire that none should perish, and you have taught us through your Son that there is great joy in heaven over every sinner who repents: Grant that our hearts may ache for a lost and broken world. May your Holy Spirit work through our words, deeds, and prayers, that the lost may be found and the dead made alive, and that all your redeemed may rejoice around your throne; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The General Thanksgiving

Almighty God, Father of all mercies, we your unworthy servants give you humble thanks for all your goodness and loving-kindness to us and to all whom you have made. We bless you for our creation, preservation, and all the blessings of this life; but above all for your immeasurable love in the redemption of the world by our Lord Jesus Christ; for the means of grace, and for the hope of glory. And, we pray, give us such an awareness of your mercies, that with truly thankful hearts we may show forth your praise, not only with our lips, but in our lives, by giving up our selves to your service, and by walking before you in holiness and righteousness all our days; Through Jesus Christ our Lord, to whom, with you and the Holy Spirit, be honor and glory throughout all ages. Prayer Training Session

Sunday, September 17 from 9:15 to 10:30 AM

Are you part of the prayer ministry team? Would you like to explore prayer ministry and how you might be involved? Would you simply like to learn more about prayer? Please mark your calendar for Sept. 17, before church for a training session on the theology and practice of prayer ministry. We will look at the Bible and how the gospel teaches us to expect God to intervene in our lives, and how this guides prayer. We will also map out a method for prayer that we use at Emmanuel. Current prayer ministry members are asked to attend. Those who are interested in exploring joining the prayer ministry are invited to speak with a member of the clergy about the process.

Jam Night

Sunday, September 24, from 5 to 7 PM in Tribeca

Grab your guitar or melodica, banjo or violin and come play and sing at a Jam Night with the Emmanuel band! For anyone who enjoys playing or wants to get better at playing with people. Bring a dish to share! Contact Amber Salladin at amber.salladin@gmail.com or use the QR code above to RSVP.

Reading the Bible Wisely

Sundays, September 24 through October 8, from 9:15 to 10:30 AM

How do we read the Bible well? Our tradition teaches us to ask God that we might read, mark, learn and inwardly digest God's Word; what does it look like when God answers that prayer? What sorts of skills do we need to develop? How can we hear God's voice and help others to hear it as well? Dr. Alastair Roberts will teach three sessions on Sunday mornings (9:15-10:30 AM) to equip us as wise readers of Scripture. Join us and come ready to learn. RSVP using the QR code above.

Conversations With Jesus

Monday evenings, beginning September 25

Jesus of Nazareth's influence is incalculable. The impact of his teaching extends well beyond religious communities and touches every area of modern life. Despite his influence, many people have never read his teaching for themselves. Conversations with Jesus is a weekly course designed to help skeptics, secularists, and irreligious people engage with Jesus' teaching for themselves.

Every Monday, this group will eat dinner and have a discussion around Jesus' life and teaching. Bring your honest and challenging questions, and expect a place of friendship, hospitality and respect. Are you interested? Do you know someone who is? Email EAC for details.

Next Step Community Church Brooklyn Food Pantry

5:30 to 6:30 PM every 2nd and 4th Friday at Next Step Community Church

On the second and fourth Friday of each month, our Brooklyn home group helps stock grocery shelves at the community food pantry. The community pantry provides quality food to restore health and dignity for families in need. Your help on Friday evenings will ensure a smooth ex-perience when families and individuals arrive on Saturdays to shop at the pantry. Children are welcome and must be accompanied by an adult.

Matters for Prayer

- Emmanuel Anglican Church—that the Lord would bless NYC and beyond through this assembly of his people.
- Pray that the Lord would grow us in the area of giving, that we would give generously and regularly to do the work he has given us to do.
- Prayers for Jim, Clint, Novella, and all leadership at EAC: that their thoughts, actions, and prayers would serve our vision and mission now and in the future.
- Pray for our Bishop, our diocese the Anglican Diocese of the Living Word, the ACNA and the worldwide church. Pray that God's will would be done on earth as it is in Heaven.
- Pray for the needy, the poor, the sick, and the distressed, that they would know Christ's peace and comfort. Pray that our local, state, and national leaders would administer justice, love mercy, and work for the good of all people.

If you have a need for prayer, please feel free to see the service leader after the service who will either pray with you or introduce you to someone who can assist you. Or you can email the church office to have your request added to our Prayer List that is prayed through each week at Morning and Evening Prayer. If your prayer is confidential, please email Jim Salladin (jim@emmanuelanglicannyc.com) and he will reach out directly to you.

For all other concerns or questions, please e-mail emmanuel@emmanuelanglicannyc.com.
